of the Estate of EVELINE BARROS-CEPEDA, Plaintiff

Civil Action
No. 0511803MLW

v.

THOMAS TAYLOR, Jr., and the
CITY OF BOSTON

Defendants

The Plaintiff is not opposed to mediation and would be willing to attempt to resolve this case in that manner but not at this time and not under the present circumstances where the Defendants have made it clear that they are not coming to the table with any interest in offering any money to settle. The Plaintiff has no incentive to participate in a fruitless process the only value of which would be to provide them with discovery of what a particular mediator thinks the case is worth. At such time as the Defendants have a genuine interest in engaging in meaningful settlement discussions, this certainly would be an option, depending, also, of course, on who the mediator would be.
